A MESSAGE FROM NEWARK HOUSING AUTHORITY'S PUBLIC SAFETY & SECURITY DIRECTOR

A message from the Director of Public Safety and Security:

Almost six months ago, we opened our second security facility in the Southward section of Newark.

The facility is being used to house NHA's Office of Emergency Management, NHA's Internal Investigative Unit and serves as the headquarters for NHA's Special Police Officers.

Since the opening, our Intelligence Investigation Unit has investigated numerous criminal activity that has occurred on housing property such as drug sells, shootings, aggravated assaults, robberies, burglaries, and domestic violence cases just to name a few. This unit has also collaborated with local, state and federal officials on some of these cases.

We initially started with 10 NHA Special Police Officers and have since doubled that number to meet our goal of 20 officers by the end of the year. Our officers have handled issues that have led to arrests, parking summons, city ordinance summons and towing. Among that, our officers also serve as community officers and continue to engage and connect with the many housing communities they serve.

Our "Community Empowerment Team" (CET) has hosted almost 50 community service events in and around the different housing sites. Most recent events include the "Back to the Bricks in Honor of 'Braz'" Basketball Tournament and the End of Summer Block Party and Book Bag Giveaway.

We look forward to continue serving our residents and the City of Newark.

Sincerely,

Jeffrey C. Gorley

NHA/NEWARK SPECIAL POLICE

The NHA/Newark Special Police Officers are focused on community policing by engaging with NHA's residents. NHA has hired 18 Newark Special Police Officers and two Newark Special Police Supervisors. The officers have been trained to focus their concerns on quality of life issues within Newark Housing Authority's problematic communities.

Since their onboarding, the NHA/Newark Special Police Officers have issued a total of 450 prohibited parking summonses, 19 city ordinance summons, and conducted nine drug arrests. In addition, 17 illegally parked vehicles were towed from Newark Housing Authority's parking lots. Special Police Officers ensure wellness checks are completed and work in conjunction with security to ensure the safety of our residents.
